Citizens Committee To Promote City Hall

A committee of Canyon business and civic leaders is being formed now to promote the construction of a new city hall and the approval on a special city election vote of that construction.

The News learned this week that the committee, to be called Citizens For Canyon, is in organizing stages to begin promotional activities for the construction of the project.

A list of names of those on the committee was not available at mid-week.

A spokesman for the committee said the group will launch a low-key drive to make citizens aware of the need for a new city complex and to urge them to vote for construction of the municipal building.

City commissioners have called a special election for June 4 for voters to cast their vote on whether or not they want the city to spend $1.3 million to construct the new building. The vote will not be a bond issue vote, nor will it in any way involve the financing of the structure.

The committee will also finance the printing of a brochure to be prepared this week to show the need for the city hall building. The brochure was compiled by city officials.

It will also finance an advertising campaign to generate interest in the new complex and the election.

"We're going to ask the citizens to consider the facts and support this," the spokesman said.

"We're impressed with this step of progress and we think it will be a boost to the downtown area particularly with the moving of Neblett Hospital.

"We're particularly pleased with the idea that the new building can be constructed with no increase in city property taxes. We're going to support the people voting in the affirmative on June 4."

The spokesman said the committee may also launch a telephone campaign to generate voter interest in the building issue, which has been a controversial subject during recent months.

The representative said the committee will simply present the facts concerning the proposed construction project and believes the facts will speak for themselves.

He said the four current structures which house city facilities are evidence themselves that a new building is needed.

In other action this week concerning the construction of the new city hall, City Manager George Louder said tentative plans call for a town hall meeting to explain the project and the financing of the project to be held May 31 with an open house in all current city facilities scheduled all day June 1.

Local Tourist-watchers Foresee Another Good Summer For Area

The much-publicized gasoline shortage is not expected to make a serious dent in this summer's $6 million Canyon tourist business, local tourist-watchers said this week.

With summer travel time approaching, local service station owners said their situation is just as unsure as it was all winter.

Roland Black, manager of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce, said high gasoline prices and the scarcity of gasoline on Sundays may cause some tourist headaches and could cut back the tourism business in the city for the summer.

Noting that gasoline costs have almost doubled, Black said some persons who in previous years have taken to the nation's highways will restrict their travel this summer.

But, he noted that the tourist count from Texas or the Panhandle area may increase to compensate for the possible loss of tourism from other parts of the nation.

Raymond Railard, manager of one of the key tourist attractions in the Canyon area, the musical-drama "TEXAS," is optimistic about the summer travel season.

He said he foresees increased bus tour travel for the summer and noted that already he has booked 220 buses for the show. Last year, the drama drew 348 bus tours.

Advance reservations also are pouring into the "TEXAS" box office, he said.

Reservations have been requested from persons in California, New York, and many of the surrounding states.

"I think it will be just as good as it was last summer," Railard said.

He, too, foresees an increase in the number of local residents coming to the show in Palo Duro Canyon.

Last year, "TEXAS" drew 86,000 persons during its season. Another key tourist attraction in the Canyon area, Palo Duro Canyon State Park, has already experienced an increase in volume this year over last year.

A park official said money-wise the figures for this year are up about 15 to 20 per cent over last year.

The spokesman said there seems to be no difference in the numbers of out-of-state vehicles coming into the park, but the majority of park visitors still come from the local area.

The supposed energy shortage has had no effect on the ability of the Randall County Sheriff's Posse to attract riding teams to participate in this summer's annual world championship pony express races.

Jimmy Plain said seven teams from Texas and Oklahoma have already entered the tournament, which is scheduled for June 28 and 29 here.

The field will be limited to 11 teams and Plain said four more teams are expected to enter.

While tourism may be expected to remain constant this summer, service station owners are still unsure of what the summer holds for them in terms of gasoline available for sale.

Inflation Will Continue Climb, WTSU Prof. Says

With the removal of price controls and the hike in the minimum wage, inflation will continue to climb this year, but there is reason for optimism, a West Texas State University business professor said this week.

Zeke B. Marchant, professor and head of the business administration department, said this week that with the law of supply and demand again in operation in the nation, inflation rate should jump more than 5 per cent this year.

Even with more inflation, Marchant said he does not foresee any recessionary trends. "I do see some adjustments being made," he said, adjustments by the consumer.

"I see people living in condominiums rather than buying $50,000 or $60,000 houses," he said. "I see many people accustomed to driving 2 to 4000 miles in a summer restricting their vacations to shorter distances. I see more local recreation activities in communities than ever before."

Marchant said he believes the American people will have to accommodate their life styles to fit the rising prices of goods and services.

In most cases, that means Americans will have to cut back on their spending.

But, Marchant pointed out that even with inflation, Americans are spending records sums of money for products. As long as the public is willing to pay the price, he said, the manufacturer will produce and will sell at what the market can bear.

"Our biggest problem is fighting inflation," he said. "People are demanding so much and still willing to pay the price for it. That feeds the fires of inflation."

Marchant said the prices for many commodities are coming down which should aid in leveling off the spiraling economy.

Even with the inflation being experienced by Americans,

Marchant said consumers here are not having to pay $1.50 for a gallon of gasoline, 60 cents for a cup of coffee or $1 for a pack of cigarettes as are consumers in countries such as Spain.

Marchant said the economy is certainly strong enough to bounce back heartily from more federal controls or from the impeachment or resignation of President Nixon.

"I'm very optimistic," he said. "I think young people and the buying habits of young people will affect any recession that may try to creep into our economy."

No Takers On Planting Sorghum In Lake Bottom

With planting time nearing for summer crops, Buffalo Lake officials have found no takers in their effort to have grain sorghum planted in the dry lake bed to try to remove some of the nutrients from the soil.

Lake manager Paul Ferguson said while several farmers have looked over the approximately one-half section of lake bottom, none have taken on the chore of planting and raising a summer crop at the southern end of the lake.

He said he may become a farmer himself and using equipment available on the refuge plant and tend the crop.

Ferguson believes the planting of sorghum in the lake bed is feasible, but there would apparently be many problems to overcome in growing sorghum in the dry bottom.

County Agent John Brazzil pointed out that soil tests indicate the soil has a high sodium content and the soil has little stability.

Nevertheless, Ferguson has seed for this summer's planting and said he is considering use of an airplane to plant the crop.

"We're going to try to put something in," he said. "We want to get something in so we can see and so we can show the end results."

Current plans call for the southern portion of the lake to be planted in sorghum for about five summers to help remove nutrients from the soil.

The cropping program is only one of several avenues being pursued at the lake in a long-

Absentee Balloting Starts For City Hall

Absentee balloting began Wednesday for the June 4 city special election to decide whether or not a new municipal building will be constructed.

The balloting is in the city clerk's office at city hall downtown.

Voters in the election will cast their votes either for construction of a new city hall or against that construction. The special election was called after city commissioners received an initiative petition from several local residents seeking the election.

The new structure will cost about $1.3 million with most of the funding coming from federal revenue sharing funds and surplus money in the general and water and sewer funds. About $200,000 will be financed for a short period of time.

The city of Canyon has about 5,000 registered voters.

Architects Begin Planning For New Schools In Canyon District

Architects began meetings with Canyon school officials this week to plan construction of three new schools in the district.

The firm of Cantrell & Associates of Amarillo contracted with the Canyon School Board last week to begin planning for the three new structures.

No deadline has been given the firm for presentation of preliminary plans or proposals, but Supt. Jerry Jacobs said later this summer the architects should return to the board with initial facts and figures and plans.

A key to the planning stage will be the ability of the district to determine areas of growth and the numbers of school children anticipated in rapidly expanding areas of the county.

Jacobs said the district will be better able to make more accurate assessments of where a new elementary school might be located after next September.

The proposed elementary school could be constructed either in the north part of the school district or near Canyon. Or, said Jacobs, it could be located somewhere in between the two cities.

He said only tentative thinking on the elementary school indicates it should be built to accommodate about the same number of students as does Gene Howe School. That school has about 500 students.

He said most educational experts advocate an elementary school enrollment of between 400 and 500.

The current Rex Reeves school in Canyon has about 1000 students while Gene Howe has about 500.

Both schools, school board members have been told, are bursting at the seams with students.

The proposed middle school and high school will probably be constructed on a site south of Hollywood Road in the north portion of the district.

Jacobs said current concepts indicate the schools would be constructed separately but with certain facilities being shared, facilities such as auditorium, athletic areas and cafeteria.

He said it might also be feasible to build both structures to house about 500 students each with the ability to expand as necessary.

When the new schools are completed, it is currently being discussed to change the grade structure in the district so that grades 1-5 meet in the elementary (See SCHOOL, page 5)

Influential New York newspapers have called for the man elected to lead the country to step aside. Granted the times are grave.

The direction the country is going is clear and that direction is not good. The nation is in turmoil. There is talk of massive protests. There already has been some violence and more seems certain to come.

The New York Herald Tribune has said that if the leader simply would step aside there might be a chance to avert national disaster and that his courage would top that of George Washington and a host of other stalwart Americans who have preceded him.

He refused. "I have been elected by the people and I will not resign," he declared.

The time was 1860. The leader was Abraham Lincoln.

Let the House bring a bill of impeachment if it must.

Let the Senate sit in judgement of Richard Nixon if the bill is brought for that is the law.

People who mouth respect for civil liberty would deny the President of the United States his day in court... something they would tearfully demand for a convicted felon.

I do not think the President should resign unless he is guilty and willing to confess that guilt to the American people.

I think a resignation under fire would do the Presidency irreparable harm and open the door to every discontent pressure group for all time to try to force the resignation of the chief executive.

At this point I would not attempt to sit in judgement of Nixon but it is becoming apparent that many of his detractors are more interested in bringing down the Presidency than in impeachment of the President.

I say, give him his day in court. Angela Davis got that.

It may hurt the country temporarily but if we can't survive due process of law... our own law written into the Constitution... we don't deserve to survive anyway.

There is something vaguely reminiscent of the 1920s in present day life.

There seems to be a rush to live it up. What's going to happen in the future doesn't weigh as heavily on the minds of folks in their 30s and 40s as it did a decade ago.

Nightclubs and places of entertainment are doing a land office business in spite of spiraling inflation. Even the movies are nostalgic... "The Way We Were," "Cabaret," and "The Great Gatsby" are a few.

Conversely, I find the college student of the 1970s more serious about what he's doing than those of a decade ago.

It is not the college student who is patronizing the nightclubs or even the movie houses. It is the older generation.

I spend some of almost every evening at the Pizza Hut across from the campus and in the past year I have gotten to know hundreds of students.

They have pretty well solved the race problem. They mingle and converse with little regard to "race or creed." They come pretty close to accepting folks at face value.

They are respectful to an "olderster" like myself but I find that I am accepted by them on the basis of myself. I do not find myself penalized because of my age.

I have learned a lot from them and have found great pleasure in their presence. I like what they are and what they portend for the future of the Panhandle and the country.

Playground Project Outlined At PTA

Projected plans for a new playground outlook at Rex Reeves Elementary School were presented to members of the Parent-Teacher Association at the final meeting of the current school year Monday evening by Martha Sheets, chairman of the project.

Mrs. Sheets noted that several improvements have already been made to the playground including the planting of ivy along the fence which faces the highway on 23rd Street but stated that "better facilities for watering the ivy is mandatory to keep it alive through the hot summer."

She also said that improvements already attended to include the reassembly of two merry-go-rounds which were by the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity at West Texas State University as a community project and the donation of several tractor tires by Consumer's Fuel Association which have been filled with sand for new equipment on the school grounds.

Mrs. Sheets said that the relocation of existing equipment has been approved by the school board and is expected to be done during the summer along with the improvement of the grounds watering system.

A projected goal for the new playground was presented to the PTA membership by Mrs. Sheets and includes dividing the main play area into two main sections. The south section would be designed to accommodate kindergarten through third grade while the north section would attend to the fourth through sixth grades.

Among new improvements planned are an outpost and slide which if ordered would cost the PTA about $1,600 but "we have asked some of our civic clubs here to help build the outpost if we furnish the materials" related Mrs. Sheets.

Another civic group has been requested to build a "footbridge across the drainage ditch" and also to order new teacher's benches at each section of the playground.

A fountain has been proposed to provide drinking water on the playground area also.

A special piece of equipment has been designed by Darrell Smith, professor of art at West Texas State University, and a builder has been located who will donate his time to the project according to Mrs. Sheets. The unusual "in-out-up and around" will not be built this summer, however, due to the lack of immediate funding. It is proposed to be placed in the older children's area of the playground and will be about 5-7 feet tall.

"We are going to rebuild the existing swing set and relocate it in the north portion," said Mrs. Sheets noting that funds for the rebuilding have been contributed by Canyon Study Club.

Several trees and bushes have been suggested for improving the looks of the playground "but we are going to need lots of help to get them growing good this summer" commented Mrs. Sheets.

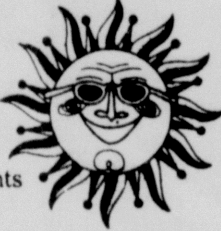

Among suggested improvements have been two grass mounds which will be in need of bermuda cuttings and care to get them started this summer.

The PTA playground committee will also provide new ball goals in the back play area along with hockey game and new croquet sets for those students who play there and a new bicyclerack to be located there.

Working with Mrs. Sheets on the playground committee are PTA members: Ann Carlisle, Dan White, Marie Kershen, Margaret Rawlings, Joy Davis, Karen Smith, Ora Mae Roberts, Vondan McGregor, Pam Ashford and Susan Dolle. Mrs. Ashford and Mrs. Dolle are also active in Canyon Study Club.

WE HOPE THAT all you mothers had a most enjoyable Mother's day.

With our wedding anniversary and Mother's day so close and with all the gifts we received, it was almost like Christmas in May.

SUNDAY EVENING, AGAINST an altar beautifully decorated with red roses and other spring flowers, we had the crowning of the Blessed Virgin, Mary. Little Michelle Sanford placed the wreath of white flowers on her head, and the other members of the kindergarten class, Renee Meyer, Debbie Wieck, Connie Meyer, Gracie Friemel, Danny Hicks, Eric Haschke and Shane Skarke brought bouquets of red roses and candles and placed them at her feet. Shane Skarke carried a rosary, which he placed at her feet.

The fifth and sixth grade classes made banners depicting the fifteen decades of the rosary and presented them as the mysteries of the rosary were explained by Wade Wilhelm. The evening closed with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. Mrs. Tom Sanford and Mrs. Vincent Meyer are the kindergarten teachers and the fifth and sixth grades are taught by Mrs. Bernard Grabber and Mrs. Bernard Hartman.

Mrs. Lee Haschke decorated the altars and the roses were from the yard of Mrs. Gertrude Fischbacher.

At the May meeting of St. Mary's Altar Society and Christian Mothers, new officers were installed for the coming year. Using the theme of the Christophers, "You can change the world with one little candle," Mrs. Carroll Adams installed Mrs. Carl Hartman as president; Mrs. Ed Grabber as vice-president; Mrs. Ed Wieck as secretary; Mrs. Leonard Batenhorst as treasurer; Mrs. John Wieck as historian and Mrs. R. E. Friemel as parliamentarian.

In the business session reports of the Diocesan Council of Catholic Women's meeting, held in Tulsa, were given by Mesdames Leonard Batenhorst and Ed Wieck. Mrs. Ronald Haschke, outgoing historian gave a resume of the activities of the society during the past year.

The May meeting will be the last meeting until September.

MAX HOFFMAN RECENTLY received word that his mother, Mrs. Amalia Hoffman died on April 23, in Germany. Funeral services were held on April 25. Mrs. Hoffman, who was ninety, remained active until about the last six months of her life. She was survived by nine grandchildren, thirty-five great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren.

She had visited the Max Hoffman's several times. Our sympathy to the Hoffman family.

I HAD A nice surprise Monday afternoon. Frances Grotegut, who is still a patient at Hillhaven Convalescent Home, in Amarillo, called on the phone to tell me what an enjoyable day she had last Sunday.

Visiting her during the day were the Phil Fortins, the John Wiecks, Joe Grotegut, the Lee Weavers from Borger, and the Ted Irlbecks.

Frances said that Mrs. Fortin presented her with an orchid corsage and to quote Frances "I had the prettiest corsage in the whole place and I'm not even a mother." She also called her one remaining aunt, Mrs. Mary Warken, in Schulenberg and visited with her. Frances hopes to be able to return home soon.

Nature's Perfection Admired

By MILDRED TURNER
"NATURE IS NEVER more perfect than in small things." Pliny. This week I picked a bouquet of wild flowers.

I noticed the tiny daisies about the size of my smallest finger tip, so perfect among all the other lovely and fascinating growing plants. I thought these plants, like the people of this area, are hearty, not easily discouraged, just keep right on in spite of the drouth and wind.

Other places may have more abundance of rain, wild flowers galore, but ours is a more rare variety (the cactus and yucca are budding now) and often we have to look to see the beauty which makes it so much more appreciated.

THIS WEEK I'VE been digging in the sod, weeding, thinning my iris. I put some extras by the road with "Free" sign and most all were taken. There will be more. I have never seen a better variety of beauty and color than the iris around Canyon this year. Nell, Elnora, and I added a few at the gate, while Pye Trimble put out some plants also. I think some of our iris would be pretty in the park, since they require such little care. I have some which do fair in almost pure sand down near the creek.

Once I looked up from my digging to see a "blob" of color go over the Moore's fence! Would you believe it was Nell? I'm used to seeing the boys fly over the fence but that was something else. I guess I'll have to attach a camera to my hoe!

My neighbor P. B. yelled "Hey, farmer Turner, where'd ya get those overalls?" While I'm working, I enjoy the neighbors as well as the other birds around here. One of my little neighbors and his big dog were walking across my garden before it began coming up, so when I yelled, "Get out of the garden," his simple little reply was, "It looks like dirt to me."

I'VE NOTICED THE young people having fun on their bikes, cycles, three wheeler, horse, go cart, etc. Now you kids have fun but be careful, please.

WELL, FINALLY THE old boxcar bridge is disappearing. Pearl Vaughn, Myrtle Forster, Janet Sheree and I drove down Tuesday evening. We talked about some shrubs, etc., when the men get the bridge all fixed up neatly.

JUDY AND GENE Webb have been making a large new brick planter around a tree in the back yard.

The Streckers have mentioned building retainers in the back yard and Beverly showed me Kathy's room which she had carpeted recently.

The Vaughns got the siding on their new addition while Jimmy, Rhonda and the little grand ones were here for Mother's Day and a few days afterward.

TALKED TO VICKI Hooker Monday evening. She and Randy, also the Walkers, were having steaks with Charles and June Hooker. The three families were going to make plans for a vacation together some time this summer. They plan on Doug and Ginger joining them also. Jamie Walker has a new car!

SOME OF YOU know Theresa Sanders (she and Johnny) from Denver. She has been visiting Delores Wright (her daughter in Amarillo) and her husband, joined by Larry Sanders and his family (from Bowie). Theresa joined me for church Sunday, then Tuesday afternoon we spent together. I always enjoy her visits. Johnny did not get to come down this trip.

I KNOW THIS is a very busy time with the winding up of school, gardens, yards, vacations, so many plans, but do take time to play with and read to the children, listen to the birds, sit by the brook, pick some wild flowers, go walking, visit a neighbor, or sick person, go to church, and call 622-0701 if you need to subscribe to the Canyon News or if you know any juicy gossip!

Posse Riders Take Trailride

Randall County Sheriff Posse members participated in a trail ride last Saturday afternoon riding to the Hufnagle farm south of the city for an evening of relaxation and fellowship.

The ten mile trail ride was participated in by 31 members and several others joined the group at the Hufnagle farm. Fifty-five members and ten guests were present for the meal and entertainment with the Tom Platts, John Dendys and the B. L. Hufnagles hosting the affair.

Next activity for the riding club will be an "Open Playday" set for Saturday, May 18, at the RCSP Arena, south of the city, beginning at 7 p.m. with an entry fee of 50 cents per game.

Ribbons will be given through fifth place in each event including barrel racing, pole bending, flag racing, potato races, ring race, ribbon race and others. Entries will be closed at 6:30 p.m., prior to the starting event. The public is invited to attend.

Parent-Teacher Group Installs New Officers

Margaret Rawlings was installed as president of the Rex Reeves Parent-Teacher Association at a meeting Monday evening in the all-purpose room at the school.

Mrs. Rawlings accepted her position from Mrs. Claude Currie, District 8 PTA president, who conducted installation rites for the group. Other officers installed were Ann Carlisle, first vice president; Maureen White, second vice president; Pat Wiggins, third vice president; Karen Sheffy, recording secretary; Isabella Garcia, corresponding secretary; Billie Ruth Clark, treasurer; Marilyn Maynard, historian; Joy Davis, reporter; Karen Smith, parliamentarian; and council delegates, Lavada Urton and JoEll Newman with alternate council members being Marie Kershen and Barbara Hartman.

Mrs. Ann Carlisle, retiring PTA president, was in charge of a business meeting which preceded the installation. Included in the business session was a report on a playground improvement project by Martha Sheets, chairman, along with financial reports for the group and other regular business.

Rev. Norman Cobb, assistant pastor of the United Methodist Church, pronounced the invocation as the meeting was opened.

Retiring teachers, Mrs. Cortez Dowlen and Mrs. Lee Reeves, received a standing ovation as

Local Teachers Take Tour

Four teachers in the Special Services division of Canyon Independent School District visited four different school systems in the Dallas area May 1-4, to view types, methods and materials used in the area Special Services programs.

Mrs. Patsy Sommer, Language and Learning Disabilities diagnostic teacher, Mrs. Jean Burton, special reading teacher, Mrs. Myra Kent, L.L.D. resource room teacher at Canyon Junior High School, and Mrs. Gala Cochran, special reading teacher at Gene Howe Elementary, visited the Sherman Richardson, Farmers Branch-Carrollton ISD and the Dallas Academy Special Services Department.

During their visit, they visited with Dr. Hoffman, neurologist and psychologist in the area of handicapped children. Dr. Hoffman is on the National

WELCOME TO CANYON

MUSIC CO.

From Howard Terry Drake

Family Needs Aid

Mr. X, a victim of a series of strokes and heart disease, must have the constant care of his wife.

Mrs. X must remain at home to care for her husband. Neither works and their only source of income is a Social Security check, not enough to meet even the basic necessities.

To make extra money, Mrs. X takes in ironing. Until recently, she quilted. She quilted, that is, until she ran out of money to purchase scraps of material and other items for the project. The family's income is stable, but bills are piling up rapidly.

That's a family situation explained recently by a local welfare worker, who has called on Canyon women's groups or other local clubs to donate scraps of material to allow Mrs. X to continue her quilting.

Any groups or individuals desiring to donate material for Mrs. X should bring the items to The Canyon News offices at 1500 5th Avenue. The items will be given to the X family.

Demos Turn Down Impeachment

Randall County Democrats turned down a resolution calling for impeachment of President Nixon Saturday night in Amarillo while in Canyon their Republican counterparts resolved full support of the President.

At a county convention only partially attended, the Democrats had only a few minutes of controversy and speeches before soundly downing a resolution from the floor to call for the House Judiciary Committee to impeach the President.

Dr. Michael Green, a delegate from Canyon's precinct 6, introduced the resolution.

Immediately several South Amarillo delegates jumped to their feet with shouts of "I don't think that's appropriate," and "That'd be poor taste."

Dr. Pete Petersen, also a delegate from precinct 6, then took the floor and told the delegates that impeachment does not imply guilt. It is only, he said, a formal process to place the case before the Senate acting as the trial court.

Harking back to a resolution passed earlier in the evening by the Democrats, Petersen said "We've said something about the ethics of senators and representatives."

"If by our silence we say this man can get by with what he's gotten by with without an investigation, then we can say goodbye to the Democratic Party."

Lake. . .

range plan to return it to use for recreational purposes.

Ferguson said a large dike, being constructed across the lake at the south end, is almost completed. The dike is being built to hold water at the south end of the lake for use by many thousands of ducks and geese during next winter. A small canal to allow water to drain from the south end into Tierra Blanca Creek below the Buffalo Lake dam, will also be constructed.

Ferguson said the Department of Interior is currently eyeing two possibilities which could speed renovation of the lake.

One possibility is for more funding for next year. More funding would mean more manpower and equipment could be used to refurbish the defunct lake.

Another possibility is the formation of a public works project at the federal national level. Presumably, Ferguson said, the project could provide manpower for the work at the lake.

schools, grades 6, 7, and 8 meet in the middle school and grades 9, 10, 11 and 12 meet in the high schools.

Jacobs said the grade structure will not be changed until the new schools are completed.

Board members have made it clear they will probably have to call for a bond issue vote to build the new facilities.

Another delegate took the microphone and called for defeat of the resolution, stressing that the impeachment procedure should be impartial and removed from party politics.

On a voice vote, the resolution was defeated and a motion to have a roll call vote was also defeated.

In other action at the Democratic convention, the delegates approved resolutions which:

*supported the adequate financing of public schools.

*called for the Texas legislature to create a utilities commission to control the rates of all utilities including the telephone company.

*opposed further reductions in the oil depletion allowance *backed a strong code of ethics for Texas legislators.

*commended State Sen. Max Sherman and State Rep. Bryan Poff.

Delegates named to attend the state convention in September were Wayne Bagley, Roger Everett, Ron Upton, L. O'Brien Thompson, Ted Serrariere, Melvin Phillips, Dr. Herbie McMannamy, K. Bert Watson, Dr. Louis Finney, R. B. Cleland, Don McPherson, Jim McNease, Nolan Henson, Jim Fletcher, Jim Palmer, Terry Jo Reynolds, Dave Melber, Mead Michael, Max Sherman, Bryan Poff, George Dowlen, Marion Bruse, Wayne Dammier, Jim Walker, Woody Pond and Tom Priolo.

The GOP delegates, meeting in Canyon for their convention, passed a resolution supporting the President in his termination of the Vietnam War, return of the prisoners of war, opening of relations with China, and his stand on returning local government to the people.

They also stated in resolution form that the President has been much maligned during the Watergate scandals and the traditional assumption of innocence has been lost.

They resolved to commend Randall County commissioners for using federal revenue sharing money for capital expenditures rather than for defraying operating expenses.

Support was resolved for the concept of election of all judges in the state who face election.

A resolution passed against federal funding of political campaigns.

Bob Holt, Randall County's first Republican candidate for a state-wide office, was keynote speaker at the convention. Holt is a candidate for state treasurer.

Delegates named to attend the September state convention include: Robert Holt, John Kenehan, Audrey Bruse, LeRoy Hutton, Bill Butler, John Fulgenzi, Marty Schantz, Dee Griffin Sr., James Rittenberry, Don Reavis, Betty Sterquell, Karen Smith, Mary Parker, Paula Gray, Carroll Brown, Robert Miller, Stanley Davis, William V. Harlow, Brooks Wilson, Eleanor Shile, Rosalind Haley, U. C. Sterquell, R. G. Foster, Elsie Silverman, Marcella Perrin, Dorothy Reed, Neal Allen, Harold Shiles, John O'Brien, Gregg Edwards, Sally Holt, Ralph Bruse, Kay Fulgenzi, Mary Kenehan, Alice Butler, Holly Read, Reuben Schantz, Peggy Brandon, Dick Brooks, Glenn Brooks, Gloria Griffin, Alma Thomas, Terry Thomas, Patricia Allen, Nora Killian, Bob Longest, Nancy Reavis, Judy Rittenberry, and James Brandon.

THANK YOU

... for electing me as your Democratic nominee for Congressman from the 13th District. Your vote of confidence helped me carry all 33 of the counties in the district and I am grateful for your support. I especially appreciate the fact that the campaign was run on issues, not personalities, and congratulate my two Democratic opponents. I look forward to the general election in November and a great opportunity to become your new voice in Congress.

GARY EVANS, SCOTT
Powers, Mike Longhofer, Sam
Pender, Dewayne Hollis and Jason Bass, members of Den
One, Pack 130, conducted an excellent posting-of-the-colors ceremony during the recent PTA meeting. Juanita Evans is den mother, and Bernice Powers is assistant den mother for these youngsters.

BELATED HAPPIES TO
Chris Seth, who turned seven on May 1. Chris is the son of Bill and
Pat. Tracy Betty, John Hicks,
Donnie Myers, Don Meier, Jill
Hale, Jay Edwards, Tim Seth,
Carmen Cannon, Delbert Hollis, Bret Copeland and Greg Cates happily helped Chris celebrate.
And celebrate they did — at the skating rink. Pat related that the first thirty minutes the youngsters seemed to want to skate sitting down. After that they turned pro, and only deserted the rink long enough to eat and open presents.

SANDRA WAIT, LEADER
of Brownie Troop 237, led her young ones through a skating party last Wednesday in observance of one last Brownie fling.
Shelley Holt, Nini Pender, Lenna Pryor, Lori Roth, Shannon Baker, Teri Benham, Stephanie Camouse, Diana
Conner, Lisa Detten and Vicki Hetzler whirled around the rink, as did Rita Mayfield and Heather Wait.

Teri, Diana, Nini, Lori and Heather also took part in a Brownie outdoor day last Saturday at Camp Pitcher Pump. The girls learned some new songs, went on a treasure hunt and took a nice long hike.

principal at Rex Reeves Elementary.

Well, a helping sewing machine or two would be handier than a hand actually. Sewing machines, commercial, or otherwise, that could be used in this upholstery class are needed.

Mr. James Hill, vice president of Region III, was the state
speaker during the morning session and performed the installation ceremony for the incoming council officers. Mrs.
Mulherin was installed as recording secretary.

Workshops were held from 10:30 to 11:40, and our Gene Howe reps attended the various workshops pertaining to their particular local offices. Mrs.
Mulherin conducted (hearty har har) the workshop for corresponding secretaries. This workshop concluded its business with accuracy and haste — or something.

During the luncheon activities, the council scholarship was awarded to Grace Rheudasil, daughter of Mrs. Dorothy Rheudasil. Grace is a senior at Palo Duro High and plans on majoring in biology. She will be attending Amarillo College next fall. Two retiring teachers from Rex Reeves in Canyon were recognized, same being Lee Reeves and Cortez Dowlen.

WTSU Netters Favorites For MVC Champ Slot

West Texas State's tennis team rates as a strong favorite for the Missouri Valley Conference team title this week in Denton, but host North Texas State could contend strongly.

The Buffaloes of coach David Kent are seeking their third Missouri Valley title in four years. They won the title in 1971 and 1973, while placing second to North Texas State in 1972.

West Texas compiled a 17-4 overall record in dual matches this spring. The only record to exceed that in the school's history was a 23-3 showing in 1971.

Bill Marsh, WTSU's number one player, has a won-lost record for the season of 11-10. Dale Corbin, the number two man, is 16-5. John Phillips, playing number three, is 10-7. Freshman Steve Johnson is 16-5 in the number four position and Houston freshman Brett Hall is 17-1 as the number five man.

In doubles Johnson and Marsh have combined for a 15-4 record. Phillips and Corbin are 12-3 in the number two doubles position.

The MVC meet will have five singles divisions and two divisions in doubles. Points will count equally in each of the divisions for finishing, first, second, third or fourth.

The tournament opens Saturday at 9 a.m. and continues through Monday.

WT Golf Team In MVC Tourney This Weekend

West Texas State University's golf team, with hopes of improving its fifth place finish of a year ago, competes Saturday and Sunday in the Missouri Valley Conference tournament in Denton.

The tourney will be played at the North Texas State University course and 54 holes are scheduled. There will be 36 holes played Saturday and 18 Sunday.

Buffalo coach Vern Farquhar will take Amarillo senior Jerry Boeka, Dallas Senior Andy Lawler, Amarillo junior Max Tenorio, Borger junior John Hood and Canyon sophomore Randall Burton.

The low four scores for each 18-hole round will count toward the team championship. New Mexico State is the defending champion. Last year's tourney was played on New Mexico State's home course in Las Cruces.

Boeka has averaged 75.6 strokes per round this spring to lead the team. He qualified to play in last year's NCAA tourney at Stillwater, Okla. Other average rounds are Lawler 76.2, Burton 78.5, Tenorio 78.5 and Hood 79.6.

WT Tracksters In MVC Finals This Weekend

West Texas State University's young track team will compete Sunday and Monday in the Missouri Valley Conference Championships at North Texas State University in Denton.

Coach Bob Kitchens' Buffaloes have 14 freshmen, two sophomores, three juniors and only two seniors among their 18 members.

Defending champion North Texas State University will be a strong favorite to repeat as champion. Drake and Wichita State are given the next shots at the title, but West Texas State has some strong individuals and could be among the leaders.

Leading the Buffalo team is weightman Dennis Briggs, who was the high point man in last year's MVC meet. He placed second in both the discus and javelin events last spring and won the shot put. He should be high among the leaders in all three of those events again this spring.

Briggs, along with ex-Buffalo footballer Mike Delaney, are the only seniors on the team. Delaney is also a weightman.

The Buffalo freshmen are sprinters Alvis Wright, Wayne Cure and Rick McGuire, quarter-miler Larry Marlar, half-miler Dave Karia, mile Jay Jones, hurdler-high jumper Terry Penn, intermediate hurdler Steve Nieman, javelin thrower Jeff Nunn and vaulters Pete Moody and Tommy Humphries.

The sophomores are weightman Marvin Self and Charles Haddad. The juniors are high jumper Gary Six, jumper-sprinter George Fuller and vaulter Mike Walker.

Girls Softball

All girls 8 to 10 years of age who are interested in playing summer softball are invited to attend an organizational meeting at the Little League Ballpark Saturday morning at 11 a.m. Vaughn Nelson is the director for the program.

Canyon Misses Out On State Track Title

Five national records set at the State Class AA track meet at Austin last week end seemed too much for the Canyon High School Eagle girl's track team as they earned only 11 points in the meet.

"We didn't perform as well as I had hoped to," stated Bob Schneider, girl's track coach. Polly Crawford was unable to run in the meet because of a broken toe. According to Schneider, if Crawford had been in the 880 yard run they could have won more points.

Only the top six places were awarded points at the meet. Sophomore Robena Johnson was the only Canyon girl to win points in single events at the meet. The mile relay team placed fifth in the relay with a time of 4:08.0. Members of the relay team were Lynn Davis, Brenda Stevens, Sheryl Adams and Alisha Nelson.

Johnson placed fourth in the broad jump with a jump of 17 feet 4 1/2 inches. This was one foot six inches short of the first place record. A national record was set in the broad jump by Pam Beacham of Mexia. This was the best jump for Johnson this year.

Johnson was fifth in the triple jump with a distance of 36 feet seven inches. This was less than three feet short of the new national record established at the meet. The new national record is 39 feet 2 1/4 inches set by Retha Swindell of Center.

Johnson was fifth in the 100 yard dash with a time of 11.9 seconds.

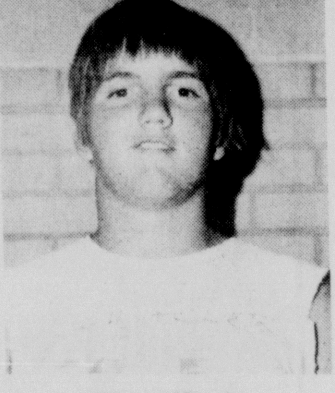

Nelson placed seventh in the 440 yard dash with a time of 60.6 but she did not gain any points.

Named as outstanding football players at the Canyon Junior High School athletic banquet held May 10 were Allen Adams, seventh grade and Bob Scott, eighth grade. Not pictured is Jonathan Hull, ninth grade. There were 350 present for the banquet.

Hetzler Wins Fighting Heart

Drew Hetzler was named recipient of the Hetzler fighting heart award given at the Canyon Junior High School athletic banquet. Hetzler is the first recipient of this award that is given in honor of his dad who died of a heart attack during this past football season.

Drew Hetzler

Outstanding basketball players for Canyon Junior High School were named at the athletic banquet held May 10, at Canyon Junior High School. They are, l. to r., Larry Whitson, seventh grade, and Ricky Cooper, ninth grade. Monte Crawford, eighth grade, is not pictured.

WT Has 10 Entries In Women's Meet

West Texas State University has 10 entries in the National Women's Collegiate Track and Field Championships, which will be run Friday and Saturday at Texas Women's University in Denton.

The WTSU athletes of coach Mary Hill qualified for the championship meet by either placing among the top three in the state meet here three weeks ago, or by meeting a qualifying standard.

Leading the entries is Stinnett freshman Billie McClellan. She is entered in both the mile and two-mile events. She also qualified for national in the 880-yard run, but won't compete in that event at Denton. In the state meet, Miss McClellan set a meet record of 5:24 in the mile run.

Pampa senior Debbie Bray is another two-mile run entry. Other individual entries are Dumas freshman Treria Burgess in the 880-yard run, Jerre Russell, Nazareth senior, in the high jump, and Amherst freshman Verna Stagner in the 400-meter hurdles. Miss Burgess has a best of 2:33 in her event, while Mrs. Russell jumped 5-2 and Miss Stagner has run 70.0.

West Texas also qualified for national in three relay events — the 880-yard medley, the 440-yard and the mile relay. Runners on the 880-yard relay are Mrs. Russell, New Deal freshman, Barbara Lofton, Hereford junior Kathy Schumacker and Haskell freshman Mary Elliott.

The mile relay, with a best of 4:16, is made up of Miss Elliott, Miss Stagner, Nazareth freshman Kathy Brockman and Mrs. Russell. The 440-yard relay team is composed of Miss Lofton, Miss Schumacker, Dumas sophomore Ann Lust and Miss Elliott. Their best time is 51.5.

Preliminaries start at 9 a.m. Friday and finals are slated for 1:30 p.m. Saturday.

Mrs. Hill's husband Bill is to be the chief starter for the national meet.

NEW MULTIMILLION DOLLAR CENTRALIZED RAIL WELDING PLANT IS A BIG ADDITION TO THE AMARILLO SCENE

Santa Fe needs hundreds of miles of welded rail every year. That's the kind of track it takes to handle our growing fleet of swift, high-speed freight trains. That's also why we invested in a new multimillion dollar highly automated rail welding facility. We put it at Amarillo, traditionally a vital operations point for Santa Fe, because of its central location on our railroad. This new plant is an efficient, highly automated, pollution-free operation. It will provide all new and reconditioned welded rail for the entire Santa Fe rail network, except for a small amount welded in place each year.

Santa Fe now has 4,747 of its 19,000 miles of track in welded rail, and will have more than 5,000 miles by the end of 1974. Plant production this year will be 430 miles of welded rail and 2,800 prefabricated track panels that are used for a variety of rail purposes.

Altogether, Santa Fe Railway will invest $180 million during 1974, added to $133 million in 1973, to make our modern-freight fleet even better with 108 new diesels and 5,205 new freight cars, plus a complete modernization of 213 diesels and over 1,000 cars. In addition to the new rail welding facility and other improvements, a major project just getting underway is a new $38 million automated freight classification yard at Barstow, California.

We are backing up Super C—the world's fastest freight train—and our fleet of high speed trains with a new concept in train scheduling. We call it RHF—Regular High Frequency. Freight gets to destinations sooner. It provides a better balance of equipment and makes efficient use of power and fuel.

This new Amarillo rail welding plant is one more forward step in Santa Fe's overall plan to provide the latest, most efficient transportation service to our customers by train, truck, trailer and container.

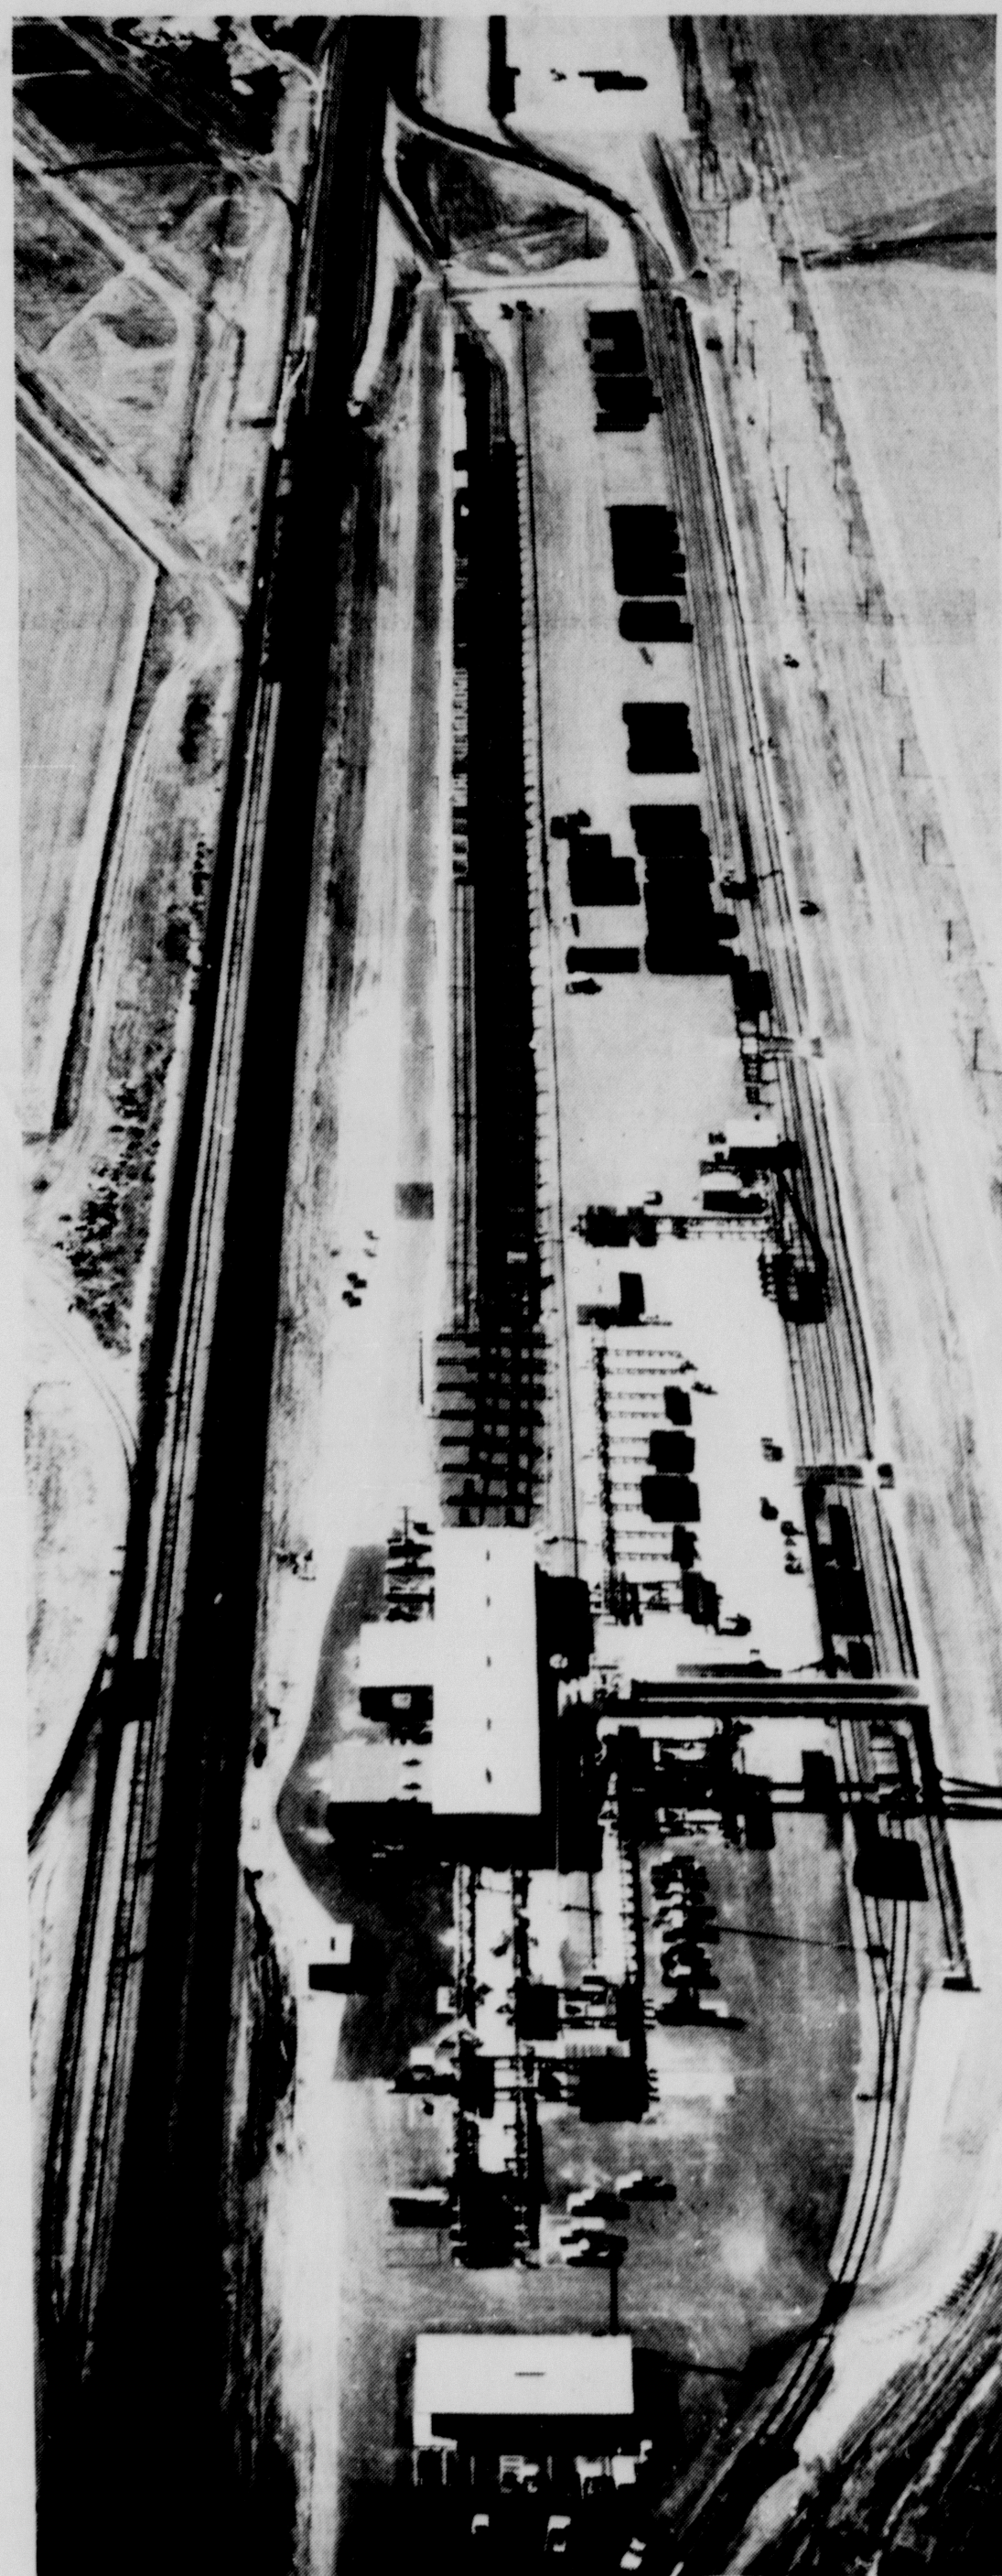

Santa Fe does things in a big way to provide better ways in transportation, and we prove it every day. The most important element that makes this possible is our fine family of 34,000 employees. 1,538 of them, with an annual payroll of $23.5 million, work right here in Amarillo.

The prospect for construction of a pipeline to carry Canyon sewer plant water to the West Texas State University Nance Ranch to be used for irrigation brightened this week as city officials learned the project has been placed on a list of priorities for funding.

The city has asked for a $396,000 grant to complete the 7-mile pipeline to the Nance Ranch.

City manager George Louder said the inclusion of the project on the priority list does not mean it will be funded.
